

Together, we are rebuilding minds, bodies & lives.

★ Easterseals believes our veterans/service members and military families can thrive where they live—and our mission is to ensure that's possible in every community. Easterseals is committed to the successful reintegration of veterans and their families into all aspects of civilian life.

★ The needs of American Warriors and their families are evolving, not disappearing. With over 70 years of expertise and experience, award winning Easterseals Capital Region & Eastern Connecticut is committed to working with veterans and their families to secure employment and financial security. It is through meaningful employment that Veterans can achieve self-sufficiency and independence. Easterseals employs innovative strategies and expertise coupled with a supportive 1:1 customized service model, tailored specifically to the individuals' needs.
