

COMMISSION ON AGING MEETING

Tuesday, March 17, 2015

Present: Sharlene Copeland, Ann DiMauro, Terry Sullivan, Joanne Jayne, Joan Cominotti

Absent: Donna Cerruto and Peggy Shanahan

Scribe: Joan Cominotti

The meeting was called to order at 1:20pm

There was no old business.

New Business:

Wednesday, March 18th - St. Patty's Party. COA members are asked to arrive around 11am. There will be about 70 members attending this event.

Thursday, March 19th - A NW Transit bus will take a load of seniors to Canaan to visit an Accordion Museum. The owner will entertain with stories about the various accordions and how he came to own them. He will also play some tunes.

Wednesday, March 25th the seniors will go to Pizza Palace for lunch bunch where they will serve an Italian buffet.

Thursday, March 26th - the NW transit bus will take seniors to Red White and Blue Consignment Store in Waterbury and then on to Apple Cinema in Waterbury where they have a $3.75 matinee.

Wednesday, April 1st - Our monthly party will be the Gay 90's and the Gilded Age Revisited party at noon. Singer/musician Tom Calinan will entertain with treasured melodies from the distant past. Lunch will be Scarpelli's beef stew and rice pudding.

Sharlene will be on vacation from Friday, April 3rd to Tuesday, April 7th. These dates mean she will only be taking one workday off.

Wednesday, April 8th - activity will be a low keyed in-house activity.

Wednesday, April 15th - Souper Wednesday and Trivial Pursuit.

Monday, April 20th - our seniors have been invited to join New Hartford seniors for a movie and lunch at the Gilson Theater.

Wednesday, April 22nd - lunch bunch....destination not yet determined.

Wednesday, April 29th - big bus trip to Magic Wings Butterfly Conservatory and Yankee Candle Factory in Deerfield, MA with lunch at Chatterley's Restaurant.

Wednesday, May 6th - May Banquet at Fairview Farm Golf Club at noon.
This is a members only event and we will try to keep the number to about 80 guests.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:10pm.

RECEIVED FOR RECORD AT HARWINTON CT
ON 03/27/15 AT 10:26AM
ATTEST NANCY E. ELDRIDGE TOWN CLERK