

ALTERNATE MEMBERS ZONING COMMISSION

Section 1. Within thirty days after the effective date of this ordinance, the selectmen shall appoint three alternate members of the Zoning Commission who shall hold office until the next biennial election or until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. At the next biennial election and at each biennial election thereafter three alternate members of the Zoning Commission shall be elected to hold office until the next succeeding biennial election or until their successors shall have been elected and qualified.

Section 2. This ordinance is to take effect at the time provided by Section 7-157 General Statutes.

Voted: March 20, 1968